Thy Kingdom Come – 14th-20th May Thy Kingdom Come is an initiative from the Archbishop of Canterbury calling the church in the UK to pray for those we know to encounter and come to faith in Jesus. We will be committing to pray across this week, and are inviting all at Holy Trinity to pray for friends, family, neighbours and colleagues as well as our own parish, town and country. Please will you #pledgetoprayer by signing up for some slots across this important week – sign up in the Welcome Area.

Community Audit – Find out more As we mentioned at the APCM, we are soon to be conducting a community audit of our parish, under the direction of organisation called Futurekraft. We would love to mobilise a team from our congregation to help conduct the audit. On Tuesday 15th May we are having two sessions at church (one at 2.30pm, the other at 7.30pm) where you can find out more, before deciding if you would like to be involved on the team. For more information please speak to Toni Gibbs.
