The Great 'Shine' Leaflet Drop - Sunday 19th May onwards We want to make sure the whole parish knows about our 'Shine' week of mission! In order to spread the good news, we have allocated members of our congregation a street in our parish to deliver Shine leaflets to. We have sent an email to those who have been given a street. Please see the list in the Welcome Area for your street & take your Shine flyers to start delivering from today. If you are unable to deliver your street's leaflets please let the office know asap. Thank you!

#HT200 A Walk into History - Tuesday 21st May, 7.00pm As part of our #HT200 celebrations local historian David Griffiths is leading a history walk around the local area of the church, with refreshments back at church at the end of the walk. Sign up at our website, via Churchsuite, or let us know in the office.

'Shine' Week of Mission 9th - 16th June Have you already signed up to serve at one of our events? If not visit the 'Shine' desk in the Welcome Area today to find out more about how you can get involved. Don't forget you can book your free tickets for you & your guests at the Shine desk too. You can also book tickets by visiting our website or contacting the office.

A new way to serve God? Holy Trinity & the Methodist Homes Association are partnering together in an exciting new way to reach out to older or isolated people in our parish & we'd love you to get involved! Huddersfield Connections Social Club will run Fridays 11.30am - 2.30pm and you can help by volunteering. There are lots of different ways you could help so please do chat to any of the Local Community Outreach Team (Babs White, Rachel Laurence, Lynda Poole or Helen Handy) to find out more.
